

Kitakogane Shell Mound Walk

Recognize a symbiosis of nature and Jomon culture

Kitakogane Shell Mound comprises the Jomon Archaeological Sites in Hokkaido and Northern Tohoku, listed on the candidate for UNESCO World Cultural Heritage. Visit the Kitakogane Shell Mound Information Center to see real excavates, and then go outside to find reproduced shell mounds and remains of a water place.

* The times listed for each course are rough estimates of the time it would take for an adult to walk them. Start your walk with plenty of time.
