

Indian Water Mill and Takaoka Route

Feeling like up-streaming salmon travelling the beach and river

Indian Water Mill is equipment for catching salmon that swim upstream the Nukhibetsu River. This route has two options: heading to the Indian Water Mill or walking alongside the beach to cherish the refreshing view. You can pop into Funkawan Observatory Park to command a bay vista.

Why not rent an e-bike for this route?

For information on renting a bike, please refer to the back of this map.

Indian Water Mill

1.9km 45min

